Don't have a pool? Try an exotic bath instead...

It may be sunny outside, but not everyone has a swimming pool to cool off in. Instead, make your bathroom a talking (and even a meeting) point with a Nara Infinity Bath. Exotic? Tick. Good for champagne cocktails? Tick. It's like having a pool party with a twist, but we don't think MPs could get away with putting this one on their expenses. £8,760 from Bathrooms International (020 8202 8288; bathroomsint.com) ■
